2011-2012 Kindergarten Tracking Information:

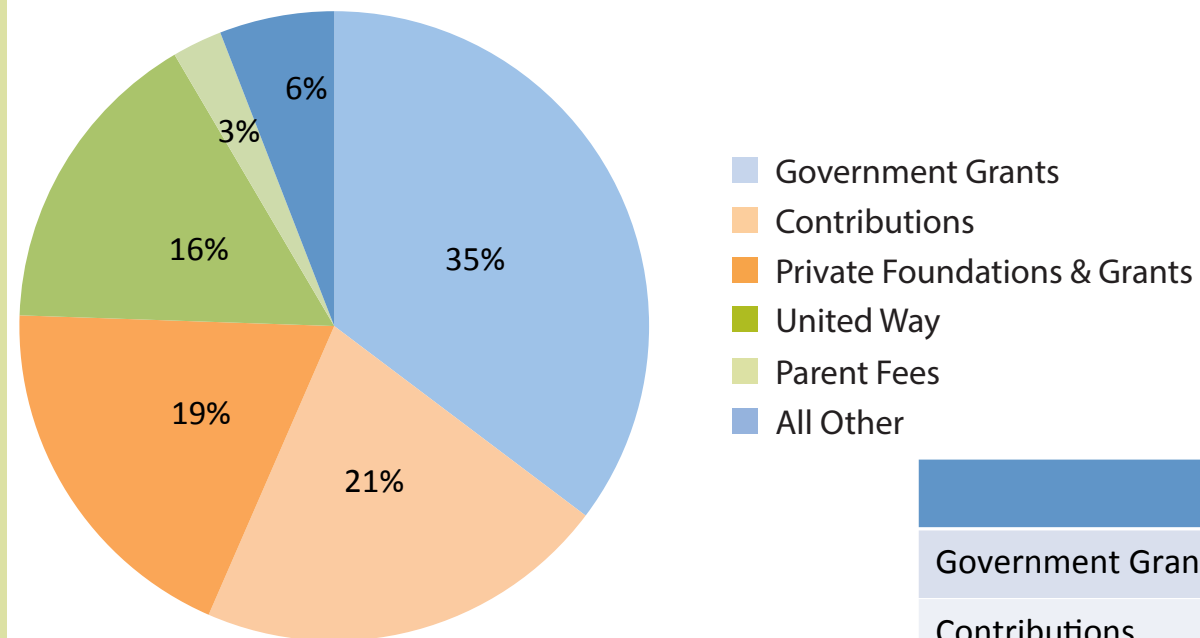

- Includes: Information gathered by independent researchers through the University of Missouri, St. Louis
- Parents and teachers were surveyed
- Asked same questions: How well did child adjust to routines & school work, how well child formed relationships with peers and adults and how well the child is functioning academically?
- Teachers also asked: what screening tool they used at start of school year and asked to determine what level the child was at across areas at start of school year according to their tool
