

Annual Report 2013

SouthSide Early Childhood Center

Nurturing. Educating. Inspiring. Since 1886.

Dear Friends of SouthSide,

2013 was a momentous year for SouthSide. Thanks to the support of the generous St. Louis community and to national foundations, we completed our capital campaign and broke ground on our new building at the intersection of South Jefferson and Russell Avenues, less than a mile from our former campus on Iowa Avenue. Today I am writing this letter from our beautiful, state-of-the-art, 19,000 square foot early childhood center. Our new building ensures that for many more decades, SouthSide can continue the legacy created by our founders, the brave and caring Unitarian women who so passionately believed in the power of nurturing care and education to create opportunity for children and families in need.

We moved into our new home in June 2014. Our new space expands our impact to reach 140 children, nearly 50 percent more than our previous capacity. And we have space for wonderful programs and services that build on our exceptional quality core curriculum. In the past week, children made "rainbow fish" in the kids' kitchen out of fresh fruit; drove cozy coupes in the indoor playroom on a rainy day; received speech therapy in a quiet room away from the bustle of the classrooms; and enjoyed the outdoors by riding trikes, sliding, playing ball, building sand creations and gardening. We are filled with gratitude for the support that so many of you provided to make this dream come true.

This annual report highlights the remarkable progress that our children made again this year as a result of the comprehensive, quality and research-based services we provide. Thanks to the literacy, math and social skills they gain at SouthSide, and the love of learning and inquisitiveness that they develop, our graduates continue to succeed in elementary school.

We have much to look forward to as we expand our program and services in our new building. On behalf of our children, families, Board, staff and volunteers, we thank the St. Louis community for supporting SouthSide and creating a future full of hope for children in need.

Gratefully,

Anne Kessen Lowell

EXCEPTIONAL CURRICULUM

Our curriculum is a forward-thinking, comprehensive, experiential, research-based program for early childhood education.

DEGREED TEACHERS

SouthSide's dedicated, full-time teachers have a Bachelor's degree or higher in early childhood education or a related field and prior experience working with young children.

While every classroom at SouthSide has two full-time teachers, preschool classrooms also have a para-professional who ensures that children with special needs receive individualized attention.

A Mental Health Coordinator, a Mentor Teacher, a Family Partnership Manager and two developmental specialists provide additional support as needed for children, their families and our staff.

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

Our comprehensive Family Partnership Program includes monthly parent meetings, Family Fun Nights and classes on Child Nutrition, English as a Second Language, and other topics of interest to our families.

Comprehensive Educational Philosophy

QUALITY EDUCATION

SouthSide's teachers and staff create a high-quality learning environment, designed around the interests of the children, where every child is enabled to become a creative, confident thinker.

FAMILY PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

Parental involvement in a child's education is critical to academic success. SouthSide's Family Partnership Program ensures that all families have the opportunities and the skills they need to participate fully in their child's development.

EARLY INTERVENTION

Children facing developmental challenges receive individualized attention from developmental specialists and para-professionals in their classrooms.

BRIGHT FUTURES

The Bright Futures Program, funded by the St. Louis Mental Health Board, enables SouthSide to provide in-house support services for children with suspected cognitive and social emotional delays.

Our two developmental therapists work closely with paraprofessionals assigned to each preschool classroom, training them on techniques for providing inclusive child-led support. In the past two years, 100% of children who have received support in the Bright Future's program have made progress on their personalized goals.
